WHAT IS AN "ENIKKI" (ILLUSTRATED DIARIES)

Japanese have a custom of creating "Enikki" (Illustrated Diaries) that portray daily events and thoughts in the form of a picture and a short essay. In an "Enikki" the author not only writes about things he/she has seen, heard, done or thought, but also describes his/her rich humanity and sensibility. Since pictures can transcend language and literacy boundaries, "Enikki" can be a very effective means for crosscultural understanding.

Enikki is a Japanese custom of creating illustrated diaries. It is a combination of a picture and a short essay. The author not only writes about things he/she has seen, heard, done or thought, but also describes his/her rich humanity and sensibility. Since pictures can transcend language and literacy boundaries, Enikki can be a very effective means for crosscultural understanding.

Mission Statement

aims to bring out the best in a child mentally, academically, intellectually, spiritually, physically, culturally and morally.

Theme

“Here is my life” (You may choose any subjects you want for your diary)

Any subjects can be chosen from the daily life of you.
