

Another feather in a cap!

Eight Rootsians with outstanding profiles have been selected for IGGY Summer U 2008, an exciting face-to-face learning opportunity from the International Gateway for the Global Youth.

IGGY is a gateway to a challenging academic world, but is also open to those who excel in the areas of talent & vocational disciplines. It will provide a centre of excellence for young people who are aiming to be in the top 5% in sport, the performing and creative arts, alongside other talent areas.

Around 100 of the brightest and most creative young people drawn from around the globe will come together to take part in the upcoming IGGY Summer U.

Muhammad Saud Shahid

“A winning entrant of IGGY Warwick Junior Commission Competition”

Muhammad Saud Shahid appeared in IGGY Warwick Junior Commission Competition and his entry was selected from a huge number of entries from around the world by a panel of judges, including leading human rights lawyers. His prize is to be one of twelve IGGY Junior Warwick Commissioners and he will undertake a collaborative piece of international research with his fellow winners over the next year.

The first part of his prize is a FREE place at the forthcoming IGGY Summer U, to be held at the University of Warwick in the United Kingdom between 27 July and 9 August 2008.

Saud! CONGRATULATIONS on such a big achievement.

Other Rootsians who have been selected for the IGGY summer programme are:

Maham Khan

Creative Writing & Comparative Culture

Thamana Khan

Creative Writing & Comparative Culture

Asma Nasr

Enterprise - Global Young Entrepreneurs

Najib Ishaq

The World of Mathematics

Trad Israr

The World of Mathematics

Shamayl Ahmed

The World of Mathematics

Picture
N/A

Zainab Farooq

Medical Sciences