- The main theme for ISFiT 2011 is global health, and the festival's name is Globalize this: Health.

Mission Statement

aims to bring out the best in a child mentally, academically, intellectually, spiritually, physically , culturally and morally.

HOW TO APPLY

1. In order for you to participate in ISFiT 2011, you need to send an application to the ISFiT 2011 board. All applicants must be at least 18 years old and current students. The board will process the applications and send out personal invitations to the selected students.
2. You will find the application form for workshops on the website and the dialogue groups also on the website. The ISFiT Board must receive your application by the 30. September 2010 to process it. As some schools do not resume classes until after deadline. Because of this, students are encouraged to apply early online.
3. If you apply for participation at ISFiT 2011, please note that you receive a personal invitation from the ISFiT 2011 board before planning your trip. The personal invitations will be given on the basis of the essays written in the application. The topics of the workshops are given on our website www.isfit.org.

Financial Support

1. ISFiT can offer financial support to selected students. Please note that ISFiT 2011 has a limited amount of funds to offer, so we recommend that you will find alternate ways of financing your journey.
2. There is a variety of scholarships and legacies for which you may apply for, or maybe your university will support you. Specifications of what expenses the travel support covers are outlined in the travel support application.

To apply for financial support from ISFiT 2011, please visit our website at www.isfit.org.

Food and accommodation

1. As a participant at ISFiT 2011 there will be no expenses for food and accommodation. During your stay in Trondheim, you will be living with a host who will provide you with a bed and breakfast. Lunch and dinner will be served at the workshops free of charge.

Language

1. During the festival, English will be the working language. As a participant it is therefore important that you have sufficient knowledge of both oral and written English.

Mission Statement
